NOTICE IS GIVEN:

The Company's affairs are fully wound up.

A creditor may object to the Joint Liquidators' release by giving notice in writing to the Joint Liquidators within 28 days of delivery of this notice.

The Joint Liquidators will vacate office under Section 172(8) of the Insolvency Act 1986
(‘the Act’) as soon as the Joint Liquidators have complied with Section 146(4) the Act by filing with the court and delivering to the registrar of companies and the Accountant in Bankruptcy the final account, together with a notice stating whether any creditor has objected to the Joint Liquidators' release.

The Joint Liquidators will be released under Section 174(4)(d)(ii) at the same time as vacating office unless any of the creditors object to their release.
